Bushy tailed, playing games

It’s a springtime morning

Three baby birds

With their mouths open wide

Mama’s just in sight

Flying high in the sunlight

Blowing bubbles in the water

Leaving ripples on the pond

Making mischief in the new, green grass

After seven rain, I took a walk

And this is what I spied...

A
Eight daffodils
 A
Popping out of the ground
 D
Reaching up the sky
 E
Waking up for the springtime

A
Nine little daisies
 D A
Faces following the light
 D A
What a sweet and silly sight
 D E
Soft and white in the daylight

D
Ten lovely tulips
 A E
Painted colors of the rainbow

D
Eleven lady slippers
 A E
Looking delicate as glass

A E
And there were twelve baby ferns
 D E
Uncurling as a breeze tickled past
 D A
Part of the springtime dance
